

Free speech is free speech, but large corporations should not be allowed to air one-sided propaganda. This includes anything, liberal or conservative. Please don't let Sinclair sway the election for their own means.